Dear Member of the Guideposts Family,

In the spirit of my father, Norman Vincent Peale, we at Guideposts do not sit still, waiting for those in need to come to us. We hear the call, and we take our spiritual services to those in need. We fan out across the nation. We travel long miles to reach those who cannot draw nearer to us on their own. We reach out — often far out — across oceans, into remote villages and teeming cities. We are there in hospital rooms and treatment centers. We are there in VA Centers and military installations nationwide. We are there to answer the call for spiritual help as quickly and as personally as we can. We can do that, because you empower us with your prayers and your financial support. And in so doing, we know that you too are answering the call to serve.

Our deep commitment to the personal touch has taken many of us here at Guideposts to many places. Our Guideposts for Kids Comfort Kit Ministry often takes its show on the road creating joyful events called Kids Appreciation Days nationwide. This year, Guideposts Editor-in-Chief, Ed Grinnan, wanted to see for himself. So, along with our Outreach Ministry staff, he participated in that wonderful fun-filled event at Phoenix Children’s Hospital in Phoenix, Arizona. Together, they delivered armloads of Comfort Kits and armloads of love and compassion. And Ed experienced the joy of presence he could not have known but by being there. That’s important, the joyful work we do is shared across all the divisions of the Guideposts organization, strengthening our commitment to answer the call as we move into the future together.

Guideposts, with your help, has been robust, energetic and responsive this year. We have answered the call, no matter how faint or discouraged, no matter how distant or near. Our message is timeless and transforming. And this year we have redoubled our efforts to tell it in a timely way, keeping pace with today’s technologies to respond ever more quickly to the spiritual urgencies of the day.

I am grateful for all of you, our donors, whose gifts have helped bring inspiration, hope, comfort and joy into the lives of so many people. Guideposts will continue to meet the spiritual needs of people wherever those needs arise, through all means available to us.

Thank you for standing with us throughout a remarkable year. We hold you and those you love in our grateful prayers.

Margaret Peale Everett
Chair, Guideposts Foundation
Deep Commitment
Make a spiritual difference in the lives of others
Dear Guideposts Friend,

I’m pleased to offer thanks to you and have the opportunity to share in the Guideposts Foundation Annual Report. As President and CEO of the Guideposts organization, including Guideposts Foundation, I have some exciting news.

Our work here at Guideposts, in all of our many divisions, holds to a common purpose: Everything we do is ministry. In that light, we are quickly moving to create and enable cooperative ventures, unifying all of our spiritual initiatives in a way that hasn’t been done before. The ministry of our print publications is merging ever so dynamically with an expanding variety of social media that offers options across the organization to the many we serve across generations. Members of the Guideposts Board of Trustees also sit on the Foundation Board. Many experienced voices are now in dialogue with one another in cross-divisional teams.

Already we see a new muscularity, a powerful response to the strong seeking of those who are forging a new brand of spirituality, driven by a new hunger and interest that has sparked a host of new initiatives. We will meet the changing needs of our constituencies, young and old, seekers in their own right. We will help them grow spiritually, so deeply desired by so many in our fast-paced challenging world.

Today and in the unfolding year, the dynamic work for all of us here at Guideposts is driven by this steering idea: If you want to make a spiritual difference in the lives of people of all ages, this is the organization that will do it. And to our donors we say:

This is the organization you want to be part of. We are proud of our stewardship of all of our resources, deeply appreciated as they are, and grateful to you who have so generously and faithfully continue to do all you can to help.

In all our initiatives and established goals, we hew to the foundational idea on which the Guideposts organization was built more than 70 years ago: Find a need and fill it. We have seen the burgeoning needs of those we serve today, and as we always do, with the steadfast, robust help of our family of friends, we commit to meeting them.

The entire organization, energized by each of its moving parts, rises to the occasion of the day, its critical spiritual needs, and to each one of God’s children who know, as always, that we will be there for them. Thank you for being there for us and those we serve as we work to meet the needs of all in these exciting times.

John Temple
President and CEO, Guideposts
Dear Friend in Faith,

Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me! That’s the blind man shouting to the Lord from the crowd in the famous passage from Luke 18:38-41. The crowd tells the interrupter to be quiet, but he shouts again, even louder. The Lord stops, turns to him and asks, What do you want me to do for you? I want to regain my sight, the man answers. And our Lord, without hesitation, restores his sight, saying, Your faith has made you well.

We at Guideposts Outreach Ministries welcome the interrupters. Often the call for spiritual healing and help comes as an interruption, an urgency we respond to as quickly as we can. We are flexible and alert in a world that is fast-paced and accelerating. We open the portals of all of our Ministries to these interrupting voices, for they are the voices of those who know the power of faith and prayer, though they be bereft and discouraged. Your faith will make you well we say to them through every special booklet we place in the hands of a service man or woman. We send out Christ’s simple, powerful words through every story in every free issue of Guideposts. Your faith will make you well rises like a gentle whisper from every Comfort Kit we place in the hands of a hospitalized child, and in every prayer offered up for a worried seeker.

While the numbers of those we have served this year are vast and ever-growing, we have heard each voice, each need, whenever it comes, as if it were our own. An interruption, we know, is a call for help, an opportunity for us to serve. As our military chaplains have themselves answered the call to serve, so we hear their call and are there with our ministry of presence. We take OurPrayer out into the world, reaching millions of people this year who call on us for prayer, and to whom, without fail, we respond.

We have heard the call from the Spanish-speaking community and we have responded with Spanish-language booklets, and a Facebook page in Spanish that provides a community for those in need of spiritual nourishment and prayer. We continue to develop a variety of digital platforms that will bring yet more calls to our listening ears and more opportunities to respond. As we have moved to the next phase of our ministry work, we hear the needs of young people at the crossroads of their spiritual lives and we are there for them.

We at Guideposts Outreach Ministries have heard the call of our Savior to serve and, with your steadfast help, we have continued to transform faith in action and call to response.

Rev. Dr. Pablo R. Diaz

Vice President, Guideposts Ministries
Opportunities to serve
I have depended on OurPrayer for the prayer support to get me through the toughest times of my life, and they are always there for me. — Isla Bingle

We heard the call for prayer support from more than 8,000,000 spiritual seekers like Isla Bingle, an increase of nearly 60% over last year, and we were there for every one, offering the power and presence of prayer.

OurPrayer continues to meet the ever-increasing need for prayer from military men and women, people who have struggled with health concerns, and those with financial difficulty. We answered the call from young people at the crossroads of their lives, from the lonely and frightened and from those losing hope. Our vibrant community of over 3,000 volunteers worldwide helped us keep our promise to respond to every request by name and need.

The numbers of prayer requests continued to rise through Facebook and other social platforms. The OurPrayer Facebook page generated nearly 600,000 likes, almost double the prior year. Nuestra Oracion, our Spanish-language OurPrayer Facebook page received more than 30,000 prayer requests. After the US, top site visitors hailed from Puerto Rico, Mexico, Canada and Columbia.

We also worked to enlarge our digital presence, connecting with our constituencies through Real Time Prayer, the OurPrayer app and innovative video. We continued to offer online newsletters and a series of online Days of Prayer, generating almost 30,000 prayer requests, along with Twitter posts of words of inspiration that reached people in their moment of need.

Our 23rd annual Thanksgiving Day of Prayer gathered more than 9,000 praying friends from around the world into the close-knit, joyful fellowship that is the hallmark of Guideposts OurPrayer. Our Good Friday Day of Prayer enfolded more than 10,000 spiritual seekers in a celebration of the life of our beloved Savior. We joined spiritual forces with a variety of partnering organizations, sending special prayer materials for their specific needs.

OurPrayer pulsed with the joy of prayer 24 hours a day, every day of the year. That pulse carried the infinite power of our Lord through every personal prayer letter we wrote. It was the heartbeat of every real-time prayer request we responded to by name and need. It was the life energy of the personal, caring commitment of each of our prayer volunteers, and it powered the personal ministries of caring of our many praying friends and supporters. Thank you, our dear friend in faith, for all you do.
“Please pray for me, for strength, grace, mercy and guidance. Mom is coming home to my house to live after a heart attack. I also have a handicapped son to care for. Thank you and God Bless.”
— Penny

“We have had a lot of financial problems but God helped us today. He loves us very much and is very faithful. Thank you for praying.”
— Debra

“My niece Anna has struggled with leukemia for five years. Finally as part of a clinical trial she is cancer free. Thank you for your prayers.”
— Carolyn

“Praise God that our daughter, Katie, and her son, Michael, are safe in our home away from her abusive ex-husband.”

Complimentary Publications

A working mom like me really needs encouragement quickly. Now that I have Spirit Lifters, I’m up every morning reading it, and it always makes me have a better day! — Erica Baker Lifting the spirits of hundreds of thousands of seekers like Erica Baker is the work of our ministry. This year, we sought new ways to lift the spirits of those who call on us for help.

We answered the call with more than 230,000 copies of the booklet Joy — offered in English and Spanish. We launched a Guideposts Outreach Publication page on Facebook, and immediately saw engagement. We were there at Thanksgiving at the Bridgeport Rescue Mission, and distributed packets of Guideposts publications providing spiritual nourishment to grateful recipients.

We sent more than 1,400,000 copies of Guideposts magazine far and wide, each one with the transforming true-life stories of the power of faith and prayer. Our sight-impaired readers received copies of Large Print Guideposts, a spiritual godsend for those meeting the daily challenges of reduced vision.

We know how difficult and lonely the holidays can be for so many. We sent messages of joy in Christmas cards personally signed for nursing home residents, military personnel and veterans. We also prepared and sent Easter cards proclaiming the joy of our risen Lord to nursing home residents. But we didn’t stop there.

120,000 free copies of PLUS magazine found their way into the hands of so many whose faith may have weakened. 1,440,000 seekers found just what they were looking for in a variety of booklets by Norman Vincent Peale and other inspirational writers. We were there at the bedside of hospitalized and hospice patients. We delivered messages of hope and comfort to senior centers and VA hospitals, homeless shelters, youth organizations, and to the many who suffered catastrophic loss in this momentous year.

Every day over 85,000 people find their lives impacted by the positive, faith-filled messages of Guideposts Outreach publications. Lives are changed for the better, hope replaces despair, and fellowship softens the pain of grief and loneliness for the many we are called to serve together. Thank you, our friend, for your steadfast support and prayers.
The girls here at the YWCA love Guideposts! The copies are always picked up right away. They need a lot of hope and inspiration because most of them are at a very low point in life. We love them. They are very uplifting!"

— Darnell

Guideposts Outreach publications have impacted my life by providing great information that has helped me to grow spiritually and mentally. Thank you.”

— John

I have the booklet Thought Conditioners. I needed to go for a medical test and was very fearful. I read Thought Conditioner #21 Joshua 1:9 and read it out loud daily. Fear disappeared. I was peaceful and the test went well.”

— Camille
Military Outreach

It’s been a long tough six months with one more to go. Your Guideposts booklets are wonderful care packages that make our days a little more bearable. Thank you.
— Captain Collins, US Marine Corps

This year we heard the call from all divisions of the US Armed Services for fellowship, courage and faith-filled materials, and we answered. We heard the call and were available through a powerful collection of uplifting booklets written to address the needs of armed forces personnel. We visited military chaplains and troops at Ft. Bragg, Ft. Lewis, San Diego Navy Base, Middletown and Danbury Vet Centers, VAMC Albany, NY, Camp Pendleton, Camp Robinson, West Point, D.C. VA and several installations in Korea.

We supplied VA hospitals, military chaplains and military bases with more than 1,100,000 free booklets and inspirational materials, including more than 660,000 copies of Guideposts magazine, and more than 57,000 copies of camo-cover military Daily Guideposts, enabling a close spiritual connection with loved ones and friends at home.

We distributed thousands of copies of Power Your Life with Positive Thinking, Resiliency, and 38,000 copies of our 2015 annual booklet, Mission Ready. We also collaborated with the National VA Chaplain’s Association to increase distribution to our nation’s veterans. This year more than 137,000 troops received Christmas greeting cards, deeply appreciated by the many for whom the holiday may be a time of heartache and deep loneliness.

We do this because you care enough to generously help us honor and serve, as our service men and women willingly serve — often at unimaginably high cost to their health and peace of mind.

Luffon Berry has served for 20 years in the US Army, and for the past six has worked in the Pentagon Chaplain’s office, insuring that Guideposts materials are always available for soldiers in critical spiritual need. Guideposts booklets, he says, target specific needs, and help returning military men and women deal with the ravages of war and the challenges of finding a place again in civilian life.

We thank Luffon Berry and thousands more for making sure that the resource tables in their charge are well supplied with Guideposts materials. And we thank you for insuring that we are funded and will always be able to answer the call with the strong, compassionate and uplifting response of our Outreach Military Ministry.
“Guideposts is a good source of inspiration to our service members and Department of Defense civilians alike. On behalf of Area Support Group Chaplains and service members, I would like to thank you for your support in making these devotionals available to us on a regular basis.”
—David Deppmeier
Chaplain (Major) US Army

“We are so grateful to Guideposts. The support people give makes a big difference, and offers big encouragement. Trying to balance military and spiritual needs can often be a great challenge and Guideposts resources are an important part of meeting that challenge.”

Hear the cries of the children and bring them comfort

Guideposts for Kids Comfort Kit Program

When I looked down at my bed after surgery, I saw the Comfort Kit. I was so excited when I saw the stuffed star and everything in it! It took my pain away. — Malia

Those are the words of Malia, afflicted with a congenital disease and hospitalized at a Shriners Hospital. But they could well be the words of nearly 20,605 sick and hospitalized children nationwide for whom a Guideposts for Kids Comfort Kit helped transform fear and pain to ease and comfort each year.

We answered the call from 43 new hospitals, which joined the more than 250 hospitals and treatment centers in 48 states served by this dynamic and ever-growing ministry of caring. Our Comfort Kit Facebook page generated more than 57,000 engagements through networking and personal sharing. Our special Prayer Tuesday feature continued to attract thousands of people eager to submit prayers for ill, injured and hospitalized children. Each request was prayed for by a compassionate OurPrayer volunteer. We also offered a Facebook Holiday Card contest and emailed the winning card to every one of our partnering Comfort Kit hospitals.

And what would a Comfort Kit Ministry be without our Kids Appreciation Days? These fun-filled, heart-moving events were held at Yale New Haven Children’s Hospital and Phoenix Children’s Hospital in partnership with hospital staff for the children in their care. Every child received his or her own Comfort Kit treasure box, filled with Sparkle, the cuddly stuffed star, an “I’m Special” bracelet, stickers, a stress ball, crayons, a parent feedback card, a stand up prayer card and a personalized name tag to mount on the wall. And best of all a special Care Journal that helped hundreds of children process their feelings and find the strength within.

The Kits are also beloved of medical professionals and caregivers, who experience their joy-bringing first hand. They are grateful that the Kits reflect the emotional, spiritual and psychological challenges hospitalized children face. A pediatric ICU nurse in New York whose own child was hospitalized, had this to say: Receiving the Comfort Kit was delightful. It helped distract her, and was a comfort to us, too.

We are grateful for your generous support. Rest assured, your personal caring and your active faith are in every bright, blue Comfort Kit box of treasures we deliver into a child’s hands.
The children love to open their Comfort Kits and delight in the treasures that they discover in them! The Comfort Kits really help us to help our children and their families to know that they truly are in God’s care. The Comfort Kit provides moments of joy, peace and, of course, comfort during their stay here!”

— Pastoral Care Department at The Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia

“A mother shared with me the other day, how much her son loved his ‘prayer kit’ and that he takes it everywhere he goes. She has named it a ‘prayer kit’. Thanks again to Guideposts for making the Comfort Kits available.”

— Chaplain Johnnathan R. Ward

I support Guideposts because it is such a positive source of inspiration. I love reading about real life stories of people leading ordinary lives and how the spirit of God is a very real part of it. It helps me to remember that God is there in the personal lives of each of us.”

— Ginger

People naturally have kind hearts and want to help someone. When you give to Guideposts you change people’s lives for the better, one person at a time.”

— John and Pat

There’s a great need for the Military Ministry right now and for the expansion of all the Guideposts Ministries in each of the areas of spiritual need. God calls on us to help others and do good, and we answer the call.”

— Jody

Small acts of kindness can change the world. Send even a few dollars to support Guideposts Ministries, and you never know the huge impact it can make in the life of one person or perhaps even many lives.”

— Jo-Anne

“Feel your spirits lift as you realize that God’s blessings are actually showered upon you.”

— Norman Vincent Peale

Every Gift Makes A Difference

Thanks to your generosity, the Guideposts Foundation is able to meet the needs of people who are longing for God’s presence and promises. There are many ways to give your support and make a difference! Here’s how…

HELP NOW

Your help supports Guideposts Ministries with gifts made by cash, check, and credit cards and gifts of appreciated securities such as stock or mutual funds. Special needs and opportunities arise and many donors choose to invest via a major gift to underwrite these types of projects, giving outright or pledging over a number of years. Call us at 800-728-5653 or visit www.Guideposts.org/support.

HELP IN THE FUTURE

A Bequest through your Will: This is the simplest way to make a gift; you only have to add the following specific language to your Will naming Guideposts Foundation as a beneficiary: ‘I give, devise, and bequeath __________ (a certain sum, a percentage of the estate, or the remainder of the estate) to Guideposts Foundation, Suite 2AB, 39 Old Ridgebury Rd., Danbury, CT 06810. (A specific program may be designated.)

Charitable Gift Annuities: A Guideposts Charitable Gift Annuity is an excellent way to make a gift now, gain tax benefits, and receive payments for life. Guideposts pays a competitive rate and has an outstanding reputation of payment. Upon the death of the named annuitant(s) the remainder is distributed to the ministry programs of Guideposts.

Charitable Trusts: The Guideposts Foundation will serve as trustee of such trusts if they have an initial principal amount of a minimum of $100,000 for charitable remainder trusts, or $250,000 for charitable lead trusts.

Life Insurance: This is an ideal way to make a gift that will be larger than what you paid for it. You only need to make Guideposts Foundation the owner and beneficiary of the policy and pay any remaining premiums.

Retirement Plans: Retirement plans may create a large income tax problem for children or other heirs. Since charities do not pay income tax, leaving this sum to Guideposts Foundation may offer a tax savings to your estate. All you need to do is to name Guideposts Foundation as a beneficiary of some, or all, of your retirement plan.

Gifts of Securities: Appreciated securities are an excellent way to give to Guideposts Ministries. Through a precise process, you may transfer shares to Guideposts. This may allow you to bypass capital gains tax and increase your charitable deduction. It is important to follow the process exactly, so please contact us, and your financial professional, for further information.
GUIDEPOSTS was founded in 1945 by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale and his wife, Ruth Stafford Peale. Dr. Peale was one of the foremost motivational speakers and ministers of the 20th Century. He wrote 46 books, including the inspirational bestseller, The Power of Positive Thinking, first published in 1952. More than 20 million copies of this acclaimed book have been sold. Mrs. Peale led the ministries at the Peale Center for Christian Living, now merged with Guideposts, and served as Chair of the Board of Guideposts.

Exemplifying the Peale philosophy that Positive Thinking is faith in God and belief in oneself, Guideposts moves forward in its mission of helping people from all walks of life achieve their maximum personal and spiritual potential.

“Deep within every normal individual is a vast reservoir of untapped power waiting to be used.” — Norman Vincent Peale
